The 910/920/930 JohnnyRed is what it is, a bulletproof torquemonster good for pulling long bars in hardwood. They are also good milling saws. I use my 920 for stumping and bucking real big wood and thats about it, its too damn heavy for felling. I would rather use my 970 which weighs half as much for that.

JONSERED - Jonsered 910 - Page 1 - SawAgain Store

The 920 is a fine saw, built for torque, not speed. The filtration system on the 920 is better than the 90 and 901 by a long shot, the 901 was famous for ingesting saw dust. The 920 is a very good saw for saw milling, the engine stands up to a lot of abuse, a lot more than a 372 will. I own several of both.
