Preacher Book 5 Tp Preacher

A friend of mine pointed out that the problem with Preacher is while most of the characters in the book are flawed-to-vile, Jesse Custer is too clean. This becomes very clear in this volume when Jesse's adventures in Salvation, Texas, he simply seems too good and untroubled to be real character with the past and power that Jesse has.

3.5 I didn't enjoy this volume, but that doesn't mean there weren't moments that didn't change my opinion. The Preacher series has been on my to-read list for quite sometime and as I move into the later half of the arc, Ennis decides to leap back into the past, I'm not a giant fan of flashbacks in general.
