The Stabat Mater is a 13th-century Christian hymn to Mary, which portrays her suffering as Jesus Christ's mother during his crucifixion. Its author may be either the Franciscan friar Jacopone da Todi or Pope Innocent III. The title comes from its first line, "Stabat Mater dolorosa", which means "the sorrowful mother was standing".. The hymn is sung at the liturgy on the memorial of Our Lady of ...

Stabat Mater - Wikipedia

In Stabat Mater Hunt conveys a mixture of different feelings about his mother through examining her relationship with his father. The initial formality of the relationship seems absurd and humourous, but Hunt also reflects on the more serious implications of this relating to the respective ages and standings of his parents.
